DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

In the listing of claims of 10/24/2005, is claim 22 intended to be grouped with the non-elected (or withdrawn) claims? Or is Applicant grouping this claim with the elected species 1.?

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-20, 23, 25, 27-28, and 30 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The preamble of each of the claims designates "A semiconductor device." The structure following the preamble describes circuitry, where presumably each circuit itself includes many semiconductor devices. So does the designation "a" semiconductor device in the preamble imply a single integrated circuit, for example, where all of the circuitry listed is on a single chip? Or does the preamble designation simply mean that a single structure such as a circuit board would include all of the circuitry recited, with the preamble designation meaning only that some parts of the circuitry are made of semiconductor?
